American Institute of Architects Tour - Saturday, April 17, 12:00 - 5:00 pm

An annual event held by the local American Institute of Architects Central Oklahoma Chapter to help create public awareness on the importance of an architect and what they bring to our community. Educating the public about regional architecture, as well as the role of the architect is a crucial part of the AIA mission statement. Proceeds from the tour benefit Neighborhood Alliance. Locations will be announced at www.aiacoc.org. Email aiacoc@sbcglobal.net for more information. Volunteers who work a half-day shift at a tour site will earn a ticket for the remaining half-day to take the tour themselves. Call our office if you would like to volunteer.

Code Enforcement 101 – June 22, 6:30pm

Our most eagerly awaited workshop of the year! This workshop focuses on the City of OKC code enforcement programs, the impact of zoning on code enforcement and some of the resources available to residents for taking care of their homes and neighborhoods. You will learn how to proactively work with City officials to deal with code violations and help clean up your neighborhood. Held at MetroTech's Big Dipper Room. Advanced registration required. Register online at nacok.org.

planOKC Neighborhood Workshop – July 15, 6:00pm

planOKC is coordinating with Neighborhood Alliance to host a special workshop for neighborhood associations at 6pm on July 15, Langston University's OKC Campus. We will share information about the planning process, and ask you about your neighborhood challenges as well as strengths. We want every neighborhood to send a representative! Register online at nacok.org or call Neighborhood Alliance at 528-6322.

NNO Kick-Off Event/Photo with the Mayor - Tuesday August 3, 8:00am

We're promoting National Night Out, planned for September 14 this year, with a morning event! We'll have our traditional photo with the Mayor and City Council on the steps of City Hall at 8:00am, followed by the proclamation in Council Chambers. Afterward we'll have snacks and drinks and registration tables set up. All neighborhoods registered by the end of the day will be entered in a drawing for Target gift cards! You can also turn in your request for volunteers. Use this day to kick off your event planning!

Advanced Legal Issues for HOAs – August 17, 6:30pm

This workshop is for representatives of Homeowners Associations who have attended Basic Legal Issues. All attendees of the Basic workshops will receive an invitation to this advanced course.

Beautification Station/Cruisin' OKC – Saturday, August 8, 8:30 am

Have you noticed the beautiful landscaping that some neighborhoods display and wondered, "How can my neighborhood do that?" Beautification Station has your answer. Join the fun for "Cruisin' OKC", a chartered bus tour of the most beautiful volunteer-driven improvement projects in Oklahoma City. After the tour, stay for lunch and informal conversation to learn how you can complete a beautification project for your neighborhood! This tour is FREE and open to the public but be sure and get your registration in early, this one fills up fast!

OKC's National Night Out – Tuesday, September 14

National Night Out is the most enjoyable crime fighting tool out there! Studies support the notion that a social neighborhood is a safer neighborhood, so throw a party and celebrate! NNO events can range from a porch light vigil or flashlight walk to a catered picnic. Be sure to register with Neighborhood Alliance so that your event is published with the master list, distributed to OCPD, OCFD and city council. Registration packets will be available on our website this summer.

Fourth Annual Good Neighbor Awards Banquet – Thursday, November 4

The Good Neighbor Awards Banquet continues to be our most anticipated event! Join us for an elegant evening celebrating the exceptional efforts of Central Oklahoma's neighbors and neighborhoods. Nominations are solicited starting in June (check our website for nomination packets). Downtown Petroleum Club.
